1. Origins and history.

Since our hometown appeared from a single train station, the station came a sightseeing and was conserved as the trains aren't used anymore. Many places came sightseeings too, for example, old soviet buildings which were builded before 21st century. They aren't used anymore, but you can visit them with the guide.

2. Transport and technologies

We use different vehicles to get to different places, but as our town is quite small, you can use a bike. With you can get in our local app. Software is integrated in our life a lot, we can do or get to know nearly everything with use of it.

3. Entertainment

We've got some entertaining centers to visit and there're some festivals on the main street happening time by time. But the most interesting activity is talking to local people. They're really smart and friendly. You could possibly be accompanied with some interesting to visit some stunning places or to do some exciting activities.

4. Food

As our region are both Jewish and Russian, we'll get dishes of both that cultures. And by the way there are many cafes and restaurants around and surprisingly, we've got the tastiest shawarma in Russia. You'd be pleased with variety!

Hope you're thinking of visiting us since now!
